Dear Roger Dziengeleski:

I am pleased to advise you that as a result of our recent evaluation, the SmartWood Program of the Rainforest Alliance has certified Finch Paper, LLC to FSC Chain-of-Custody standards. Your certificate covering the next five years from May 1, 2008 to April 30, 2013 is enclosed. Also enclosed is a copy of the signed certification agreement for your records.

As you know, the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) is the internationally recognized standard setting body that accredits and monitors forestry certifiers worldwide. According to FSC procedures, your certificate registration code must be provided to your customers and the general public, upon request, as validation of your SmartWood certification. Please note that your company-specific certificate registration code contains six digits which must be utilized; your code is SW-COC-000934. You have also been issued a Controlled Wood (CW) certificate code, SW-CW-000934. The CW code is available if/when your company is approved to make "FSC Controlled Wood" sales within your CoC certificate scope.

You can now use the FSC trademarks and the Rainforest Alliance Certified™ seal to promote your certification and label your certified forest products. Access to the FSC trademarks is now granted online through the FSC Labeling Publication System. Rainforest Alliance has produced a zip file, which includes the Rainforest Alliance Certified™ SmartWood Program Labeling Guidelines and the Rainforest Alliance Certified™ seal artwork. Please note that you must also use the FSC label or trademarks if you choose to include the Rainforest Alliance Certified™ seal. Restrictions apply to trademark use for FSC Controlled Wood products such that claims are only acceptable on sales and shipping documentation.

As stipulated in the certification agreement, it is required that SmartWood approve any proposed use of the Rainforest Alliance Certified™ seal and FSC label or trademarks, as well as proposed text relating to Rainforest Alliance, SmartWood or FSC certification in your promotional materials before going to print.

Please look at our Web site www.rainforest-alliance.org/branding (user name: RAINFOREST; password: SUBS) for ideas on how to promote your Rainforest Alliance affiliation.

We look forward to working with you in the future. Congratulations on your commitment to sound forest stewardship.

Sincerely,
